

Terms and Conditions April 2021

Consent: By registering for or participating in The Financial Services Council of New Zealand (the FSC) Breakfast with James Shaw, 14 May 2021 (the Event) all registrants, attendees, speakers and anyone present agree to these Terms and Conditions.

Full Registration Fee includes: Admission to the Event and all refreshments.

Membership Discount: To qualify for membership prices, your organisation or business must be a current member of the FSC. The current membership list is available on the FSC website. If your organisation or business is not a member then non-membership prices apply. If you are interested in finding out more about becoming a member, please contact the FSC.

Liability Disclaimer: The Event organisers and their agents do not accept any liability for any errors or omissions which may appear on this Event web page or any Event materials or brochures. To the best of our knowledge, comments were correct at the time of writing. The Event organisers and their agents reserve the right to amend any part of the programme without notice. Such amendments may include change of dates and times, substitutions or cancellations of speakers, social functions, or tours. The Event organisers and their agents accept no responsibility for the accuracy or content of any oral or written statement made by any speaker at or in connection with the Event.

Force Majeure Event: The FSC, its suppliers and its agents shall not be liable for any failure or delay to the Event and any associated event arising from attributable to acts, events, omissions or accidents beyond its reasonable control. For the avoidance of doubt, a Force Majeure Event includes a COVID-19 order imposed pursuant to a COVID-19 Public Health Response (Alert Level Requirements) Order, including any Order Amendments, that prohibits the holding of the Conference and any associated events in the Auckland region up to and including the dates of the Event.

Cancellation Policy: Tickets to the Event may be transferred to another delegate at any time. In the instance that the Event is postponed, or held by another medium, tickets will remain valid for the new dates. In the instance that the Event is cancelled, tickets are fully refundable.

Third Party: By agreeing to these Terms and Conditions, you agree to the FSC adding your details to the contact database and sharing your details with third parties connected to the Event, including sponsors and such consent can be withdrawn at any time by contacting the FSC.

Filming and Photography: The Event organisers will film and take photos of different aspects of the Event. These materials remain the property of the FSC and by registering for and attending the Event all attendees, speakers and anyone present give consent to the FSC to use the video footage and photography taken at the Event.

Privacy

The Financial Services Council of New Zealand (the FSC) is committed to protecting your privacy. We will not sell, rent, or in any manner share personal or credit card information that we obtain from you. The FSC will not intentionally disclose any personal information about you (such as your name, address, telephone number, credit card number, or email address) to any third party unless we have your permission as disclosed in these Event Terms and Conditions.

Collection of Information

The FSC website automatically collects some anonymous “non-personally identifiable” aggregate information about visitors when pages on our website are requested through a browser. This information is used for statistical purposes and to help us monitor how many guests navigate our site, allowing us to customise our service for future visitors.

The FSC website collects IP addresses as a component of the non-personally identifiable aggregate information. An IP address is a number assigned to your computer by a web server when you are on the Internet. This information is used only for non-user specific purposes, such as determining how many users visited a specific area of our site. However, if it were necessary, such information could be used to identify a user in order to comply with safety and or security issues or with legal requirements.

Cookies

A cookie is a small text file that is sent to your browser from a website and stored on your computer’s hard drive. Cookies can’t read data from your hard disk or read cookie files that were created by other sites. The website that creates a cookie is the only one a browser will permit to access it. Cookies do not allow the FSC to personally identify you by name, email address, or other personal information. The FSC may use cookies to analyse site activity and customise content. The FSC does not use cookies in connection with online donations.
