Minister of Commerce and Consumer Affairs to open FSC's Get In Shape Summit

The new Minister of Commerce and Consumer Affairs, the Hon Dr David Clark will open the Financial Services Council's (FSC's) upcoming Get In Shape Summit in Wellington on 10 February 2021.

It is set to be one of his first appearances at a financial services industry event in his new role as Minister of Commerce and Consumer Affairs. Clark's speech at the first Summit session, will be followed by a Q & A moderated by FSC CEO, Richard Klipin.

"We are delighted to welcome the Hon David Clark to our Get In Shape Summit series," says Klipin.

"The financial advice sector is undergoing significant change. We at the FSC along with the financial advice community in New Zealand are looking forward to hearing the Minister's views as he steps into his new role.

"This is a great opportunity for our industry to hear first-hand from the new Minister on his priorities and expectations and is not to be missed."

The annual Get In Shape Summits bring together almost 1000 members of the financial advice community across the country, with the 2021 series designed to prepare advisers for the new Financial Advice Regime commencing on 15 March.

The Summits will also feature sessions unpacking research from NZ and the globe, opportunities to network with leaders shaping the future of the sector and a masterclass to help advisers prepare for the new regulation.

The Joy of Money authors Kate McCallum and Julia Newbould will also be sharing their tools, tips and insights to help advisers grow their business.

Last chance to register – 8 days to go until the Wellington Summit

The February 2021 Get In Shape Advice Summits will be held in Auckland, Christchurch, Wellington and Dunedin. Tickets are going fast with around 1000 tickets already sold. Registrations will close this week.

The Marketplace 2021

The Marketplace returns this year, with government and regulators, insurers and trustee service providers, IT solutions, colleges and consultants coming along to support advisers in preparing for the changes.

More information is available, and registrations are open at www.getinshape.nz.
